

Radley crew enters Head of the Charles

Not the Head of the Charles crew but a J14 Wednesday Option crew learning about Octos

Head of the Charles

A Radley eight flies to Boston tomorrow to race in the Head of the Charles on Sunday 21st October.

The crew will be boating from Riverside Boat Club between 12 noon and 2 pm on Friday with the possibility of another outing the same day at 4 pm.

Eights are not allowed to practise on Saturday so the crew hopes to see some of the Saturday rowing events and then watch the Rugby.

They race in Youth Eights on Sunday morning at 10.57 (check the time on the website: <http://www.hocr.org/home/default.asp>) or click below.

The Radley crew is:

Max Bullen-Smith
James Lucas
Myles Watkiss
Will Bromfield
Will Storey
Ed Sants
Archie Vey
Hugo Brine
Henry Woodward-Fisher

There are 56 entries in Youth Eights including USA school crews from St Joseph's Prep, Choate, and Belmont Hill. From Britain there are two Eton crews, two Abingdon crews and the Radley crew.

The Radley crew is not the Radley 1st VIII. It is a development crew made up of those who are rowing this term rather than playing rugby. They are going to Boston to gain experience and it would be wrong to expect too much of them. We wish them well and hope they will scare some of the big battalions.
